SOCIAL MATTERS. A Pretty Church Wedding This Morning-Summer Plans.

Calvary Baptist Church, on the corner of H and 8th streets, was well filled with well-known residents of this city this morning at 10 o'clock to witness the marriage of Miss Nellie Florence Pumphrey, niece of Mrs. Margaret Havenner of No. 202 E street northwest, and Dr. E. G. Kimball of Nashua, N.H. The guests were seated by Mr. P. B. Havenner, cousin of the bride, who also served the groom as the best man, Mr. Wm. Quimby, Dr. F. R. Lane, and Mr. A. P. Greely. They were boutonniers of white rose buds. The bride and groom entered the church, arm in arm, to music of the Lohengrin edding march. There were no bridesmaids. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. C. C. Meador, pastor of the Fifth Baptist church. The bride wore a travelling dress of amethyst Henrietta cioth and faille, with hat and gloves of the same color. The bride's bouquet was composed of Puritan roses tied with a white ribbon. During the ceremony the flower song from "Faust" was effectively ren-dered. Mrs. Havenner, the aunt of the bride, who occupied the front pew, was attired in a handsome toilet of rich black silk, trimmed with passementerie, and wearing a bonnet of black tulle and lace and roses. Miss Havenner, cousin of the bride, was in a gown of brown figured India silk, and Miss Estelle Havenner wore a pretty toilet of white silk. Dr. and Mrs. Kimball left the church while the organ played Mendelssohn's wedding march and drove to the residence of Mrs. Havenner, where they said good-bye to their relatives. There was no reception, for they left the house in time to take the 11:40 train for Atlantic City. They will be absent on a three months' tour rough the eastern cities and watering places. They will return here in the autumn to take up their residence. The bride received a large number of very handsome gifts. Mrs. Spooner and family of young people will leave the city today for their delightful summer home at Sorrento.

Justice and Mrs. Lamar left the city last week for their home in Georgia. Dr. R. C. Fisher is spending a few days at Berkeley Springs. Lieut, and Mrs. Robert M. G. Brown will close their K street house next week and go to Deer Park for the season. That elevated sum-mer resort is at present the abode of some hun-dred couples on their wedding journeys. Col. M. M. Parker will leave next month on
